

GAIL K. GOLDEN, Ed.D, M.S.W.
77 SOUTH MAIN STREET
NEW CITY, NY 10956
PHONE: 845-634-5729, EXT.314

EDUCATION:

FAIRLEIGH DICKINSON UNIVERSITY, NEW JERSEY
Ed.D., 1987

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY GRADUATE SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
M.S.W., 1967

BARNARD COLLEGE
B.A., 1964

RECENT PROFESSIONAL:

VOLUNTEER COUNSELING SERVICE OF ROCKLAND COUNTY
CLINICAL DIRECTOR 1980-PRESENT

Responsible for all clinical work in the agency including: intakes, assessments, case assignments, supervision of 12-30 supervisors annually, liaison with other agencies, screening, training and evaluation of counselors, case management, troubleshooting, policy development, grant writing, new program development, EAP program, oversight of Social Work and Psychology Masters and Doctoral interns.

Design, development and oversight of the following programs:

A widely-acclaimed volunteer counselor training program.

Parenting programs for abusive, neglectful or at-risk mothers and fathers, separating and divorcing parents, grandparents raising grandchildren, mothers new to the country (Spanish language).

Services to Elders Program, including in-home counseling for homebound seniors and care-giver's support group.

FINS program, a special service for adolescents-at -risk of placement.

Training for counselors related to domestic violence, racism and diversity.

Counseling services for Gay and Lesbian clients.

Peer training model for disabled young adults.

Special community programs after 9/11 to provide support and education to professionals, clients and teachers.

Counseling Services for cancer patients.

Public talks for parents and teachers related to bullying.

Health outreach initiative for immigrant mothers.

PRIVATE PRACTICE OF PSYCHOTHERAPY 1979-PRESENT

Adults, older adolescents, couples. Specialties include domestic violence, parent-child, women's issues, trauma, depression, anxiety.

Licensed Clinical Social Worker in NY State.

Licensed Clinical Social Worker in the State of New Jersey.

Completed level I and II of EMDR training.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS:

New York State Society for Clinical Social Work - Fellow

National Association of Social Workers-Diplomate

National Writers Union

OTHER ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Co-Founder and Co-Chair of Rockland Immigration Coalition: 1999-present. Among other activities, this coalition helped begin the 'Jornaleros Humanitarian Assistance Project,' a gathering site for day laborers. The coalition provides information, advocacy and referral for all immigrants to the county.

Member: Public Health Priorities Committee of Rockland County.

Member: Nyack Hospital Outreach Committee.

Board Member: NY Civil Liberties Union.

Board Member: Day Laborers Center, Spring Valley, NY.

Member of Local Advisory Board: WBAI Radio Station 1997-2003.

Advisory Council Member: Helping Hands, an interfaith program to shelter the homeless, Rockland County N.Y.

Co-author of several widely reprinted articles on violence against women. (See enclosed list of publications.)

Trainer in Volunteer Professional Network: conducting stress workshops for New York City Police Department employees after 9/11.

Therapist for Project Liberty: providing counseling for police and firefighters after 9/11 (co-sponsored by the New York City Police and Fire Departments).

AWARDS:

Volunteer Counseling Service: November 2000, for visionary leadership.

National Organization for Women, Rockland County Chapter, Caroline Lexow Babcock Award: September 2004, 'unsung heroine' award.

New Beginnings Dignity Services: October 2004, for humanitarian service.

National Association of Social Workers/ New York State Chapter: Lifetime Achievement Award, November 2004.

NAACP Lifetime Achievement Award: Spring Valley N.Y. Chapter, November 2005.

FAX: 845-634-7839

EMAILS: PEACEPOET@AOL.COM

GGOLDEN@VOLUNTEERCOUNSELINGSERVICE.ORG